THE WASHINGTON PRESBYTHRY .-The Washington city presbytery met at Ballston on Monday evening and concluded its session yesterday. Rev. F. J. Grimke, the retiring moderator, delivered the sermon, after which Rev. C. A. Smith, of the Western Church, was elected moderator. Rev. W. C. Alexander was received from the presbytery of Monmouth, N. J., and Rev. Thomas Chalmers Easton, D. D., from the presbytery of San Francisco.

Rev. S. V. V. Holmes, of the First Church, was dismissed to the presbytery of Buffalo, N. Y. A call from West street (George town) Church was placed in the hands of Rev. W. C. Alexander. Rev. Arthur Little, of the Iowa City

Presbytery, was also received. Rev. C. B. Ramsdell reported that the churches at Kensington and Tr-koma desired independent pastors with a little help. The church at Takon a was erected by Mr. B. H. Warner, who desired it to be dedicated free from debt. This will be doue. Aid to Ken-sington and Takoma Park churches was allowed to the extent of $300 each; to Herndon and Clifton, $100 each; to Garden Memorial Anacostia, $300, and to Lewinsville and Vienna, $300 each. No action was taken with regard to Manassas at present, but it was ordered that a commission of three be sent to that church to harmonize any conflicting elements which may exist.

The committees appointed to ascer-tain what churches desired a visit by representatives of the presbytery re-ported that less than half the churches had responded. It was decided to visit those who had requested visitation and those who might subsequently apply. The report of the committee on assess ment showed a balance in the treasury of such a sum as to allow the per capita tax to be reduced from 11 to 9 cents per member. A BRIDAL COUPLE,-The writer was at a Maine railroad station the other day when a groom led his bride to the car steps. He was the worst persecuted man that we have seen this year. First of all some nefarious villains had tied white ribbons and disreputable old shoes all over the trunks, says the Lewiston Journal. That should be a penal offense of itself. Then as the bridal couple walked to the train a band of conspirators charged down and opened a rice battery. The groom was speedly dripping with rice, while the bride's veil sagged with it. The ornamenta-tion of her cloak caught the tiny kernels and held them so perseveringly that she was whitened. She lost her self-possession, ducked her head and stood silently awaiting a cessation of hostilities. The groom was a practical exemplification of all that the civilizing influences of this fin de siecle age can do for a man. You could see the savagery of ancient days lurking in his eyes; you could see by the convulsions of his face and the twi chingof his muscles that his every impulse prompted him to leap upon his persecutors, rend their limbs and scatter them. If it had been in days of old there would have been a series of horrible murders the groom would have seized the bride, and would either have climbed a tree our forefathers used to do that-or would have hied away to his fastness. The crowd laughed on, ignorant of the danger that they courted. One shrill-voiced miss .screamed, "Don't be so sulky, Will," and she let him have a double-handful of stinging rice kernels. The g.oom clinched his teeth a little closer, turned, left his bride and walked into the car. Why not have this persecution relegated to the garret along with the thumb-screws and iron virgin? It's fun for the crowd, but isn't it about time to have a case for the BISHOP WHITTLE'S SIGHT .- Bishop Whittle underwent the painful and delicate operation in Richmond on Saturday afternoon of having one of his eyes removed.
